Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A grey tree with spreading branches and visible roots upon a lattice pattern of blue and white lozengy, all framed by an elaborate helm with flowing blue and white mantling.

Symbolism: The tree, shown in its entirety from roots to crown, represents endurance, antiquity, deep-rooted strength, and the continuity of their lineage through generations (the connection between past and future). Its roots draw nourishment from ancestral wisdom while its branches reach toward future prosperity. The lattice pattern behind it represents the networks of alliance and kinship that support their house. The helm and mantling (traditionally a knight's cape) indicate martial nobility and the protective role they play as an ancient and established house.

Motto: "A Tree That Never Dies."
