Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A powerful red bull or horned creature rearing up on its hind legs in a rampant pose against a red and yellow shield divided by a bold diagonal line from upper right to lower left. The bull is rendered entirely in red with black outlines and detailing, appearing to be leaping or charging upward against the yellow triangular section in the upper left, while the lower right portion matches the bull's crimson coloring.

Symbolism: The bull represents indomitable strength, stubborn determination, and the raw force of will that drives the house forward. The rampant pose suggests active aggression and readiness for confrontation. The red coloring throughout emphasizes the bloodline, martial courage, and passionate intensity that defines their character. This is a house that achieves its ends through sheer force of determination.

Motto: "By Our Blood and Will."
