Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A golden pointed star with orange shading and detailed hatching against a deep blue field, positioned centrally and slightly overlapping diagonal silver and yellow stripes that run from upper left to lower right across the shield. The six-pointed star radiates outward with geometric precision, its warm golden-orange tones creating a luminous focal point against the cooler blue background.

Symbolism: The star represents guidance, constancy, and divine favor, the fixed points that have guided knights and nobles throughout history. The diagonal stripes suggest the structured path of service and the intersection of noble bloodlines. The blue field evokes loyalty, truth, and the vast firmament under which all oaths are sworn.

Motto: "Tradition, Honor, and Duty."
