Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: An elegant shield with a distinctive curved hourglass or chalice-like division, featuring yellow on the left and right edges with a deep green central field, upon which stands a golden-bodied ostrich with a white head and neck. The bird is depicted in profile facing left, its form detailed with careful attention to its distinctive long neck, legs, and plumage.

Symbolism: The ostrich, a bird known for its impressive stature, valuable plumes, and ability to thrive in harsh conditions, symbolizes dignified bearing, exotic wealth, and the wisdom to discern truth from falsehood. The green field represents growth and abundance, and the golden sections frame the composition with the color of wealth and achievement.

Motto: "Pride and Prosperity."
