Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A proud red rooster standing upright on what appears to be a golden or yellow ornamental base or pilaster, positioned centrally against a white or silver shield beneath a golden chief (the upper section of the shield). The rooster is rendered in vibrant red with orange legs and distinctive comb and wattle, standing in a natural alert pose with its elaborate tail feathers flowing behind it.

Symbolism: The rooster, a creature that announces the dawn with unwavering regularity, represents reliability, vigilance, and the breaking of each new day with consistent faithfulness. This is a house whose promises are as certain as the morning. The prominent positioning and bright colors indicate a house that does not hide its commitments but proclaims them boldly for all to witness.

Motto: "Our Word is Our Bond."
