Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A striking red shield adorned with three golden circular symbols and a radiant sun in the upper right corner. Two of the circles are rings or annulets, while the third is a solid disc, all arranged vertically along the left and center of the shield. The golden sun features pointed rays positioned prominently to the right.

Symbolism: The sun represents glory, constancy, and the illuminating power of honor. The circular forms symbolize reflection and the cyclical nature of duty. The rings represent eternal bonds and unbroken commitment. Together, these elements speak to the house's dedication to maintaining order through steadfast service.

Motto: "Through Honor and Duty."
