Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A heraldic double-headed eagle in gold with orange accents, positioned centrally on a shield divided by bold diagonal black and yellow stripes running from upper left to lower right, creating a striking geometric pattern. The eagle is rendered with wings spread wide and detailed feathering, facing both left and right with orange beaks and talons, symbolizing vigilance in all directions.

Symbolism: The eagle represents imperial power, far-sightedness, and the ability to soar to the highest heights. The bold diagonal division suggests ascension and upward movement. The dual heads signify comprehensive awareness and the ambition to master all horizons in pursuit of excellence.

Motto: "Aspire to Greatness."
