Why They Matter

[TBD]

Heraldry

Crest: A fierce golden tiger in profile, leaping or walking left across a background of alternating green and yellow diagonal bands in a lattice or trellis pattern that creates a dynamic woven effect across the entire shield. The tiger is rendered in bold gold with black stripes and details, dominating the center of the composition with its mouth open in a roar or snarl, conveying raw power and ferocity.

Symbolism: The tiger, a creature associated with royalty, courage, and primal strength, represents the savage nobility and untamed power that flows through their veins. The interwoven lattice pattern suggests the complex connections of noble bloodlines and the bonds that define aristocratic heritage. The royal gold coloring speaks to noble blood, and the green to vitality.

Motto: "Our Blood Runs Royal."
