

Map of the World by (~1BR -50 AR)

The known world during Crandona's Era (~1 BR – 50 AR). By this age the six independent kingdoms have been redrawn into a single empire of duchies and kingdoms under new names, with the Caporiolan Kingdom as the Imperial Seat. This gallery catalogs every nation, sea, and isle labeled on the map — cross-checked against the World Without God canon. Canon flags are collected at the bottom.

Era shown: Crandona's Era. For the realm names of the age before, see the Six Kingdoms map; for the age after, see the Minara's Era map.

Full World Map — Master Annotated View

The known world in Crandona's Era — the imperial duchies and kingdoms, the Quather and Orburydon seas, and the southern isles

Western landmass — the Tanan Grand Duchy, the Caporiolan Kingdom, and Lingia, with the Quather Sea

Eastern landmass — Hikai, the Uxridian Grand Duchy, and Theolissea, with the Orburydon Sea

The Empire — Nations & Capitals

The map shows the imperial order of Crandona's Era: the former six kingdoms reorganized into two Grand Duchies and four Kingdoms, plus the neutral isles to the south.

Seas & Major Waters

- The Quather Sea — west, along the Tanan Grand Duchy's coast. ✅ Canon (the only sea unchanged across all three eras).
- The Orburydon Sea — northeast / east, bordering Hikai and the Uxridian Grand Duchy. ✅ Canon (renamed from the Oberya Sea for this era; reverts later).
- Thult (Southern Waters) — the southern waters below Lingia. ⚠️ Canon renames the old Fetora Sea to this during Crandona's Era, though the label isn't drawn on this map.
- Henem Bay — the small northern coastline. 📝 Not featured on any Crandona-era map; its name for this era isn't recorded.

Neutral & Sacred Sites

- The Academy — the island institution in the southern waters, between the Lingia and Hikai coasts. Holds neutral status independent of the surrounding provinces. ✅ Canon.
  - Thult — the sacred southern archipelago that belongs to no ruler. ✅ Canon.

Tanan Grand Duchy — The Land Under the Sun (West)

Formerly Aicruae. Reorganized from a sovereign kingdom into a Grand Duchy after the empire's formation. Birthplace of the Patton dynasty and one of two realms that holds impartial standing toward the empire.

The Tanan Grand Duchy in detail — the fertile western lowlands along the Quather Sea

- Capital: Tericaer (Name Evolution canon; Lajazer was the seat under the old Aicruae).
- Terrain: predominantly green and temperate — fertile lowlands with gentle elevation. Agrarian and stable.
- Economy: the continent's breadbasket; the granary district (the Aoner) historically produced ~48% of the world's rice, fruit, eggs, and meat.
- Faith: the Circle of Eternal Light, devoted above all to Razar, the sun god — hence "the Land Under the Sun."
- Coast: the Quather Sea frontier to the west, with natural harbors and fishing ports.

🏰 Caporiolan Kingdom — The Land of Eternal Silence (Center — Imperial Seat)

Formerly Gherci. The largest and most populous realm, and the Imperial Seat of Crandona's Era — the administrative heart of the empire.

The Caporiolan Kingdom in detail — the central heartland and river plains, with no direct coastline

- Capital: Baviet (Name Evolution canon; Tarmet was the seat under the old Gherci).
- Terrain: transitional — rolling plains, central river systems, moderate elevation. A strategic inland crossroads with no direct coastline.
- Population: historically the continent's largest (~389 million), with a pronounced female majority (~78%).
- Power: a theocratic society where the temple hierarchy — The Teire, led by the Main Master — rivals the crown in authority.

- Role: seat of imperial administration and overland trade.

Lingia — *The Demon's Pit (South-Central)

Formerly Pireaynea. Long known as a lawless land of warlords and bandits, absorbed into the empire as Lingia.

Lingia in detail — the drying south-central interior, sloping toward Thult

- Capital: Haleret (Name Evolution canon; Civer was the seat under the old Pireaynea).
- Terrain: more arid than in earlier eras — a hot, semi-dry zone transitioning toward desert near Thult.
- Faith: historically monotheistic, devoted to Allan — long considered heresy by the Circle's clergy.
- Character: a troubled, contested borderland between the imperial core and the southern wastelands.

❄ Hikai — The Forsaken Land (Northeast)

Formerly Coelum. Once the impoverished northern wasteland "abandoned by the gods," renamed Hikai under the empire.

Hikai in detail — the elevated, forested northern highlands

- Capital: Osenki (Name Evolution canon; Atriki was the seat under the old Coelum).
- Terrain: alpine and elevated — lighter green forests and plateaus.
- Culture: likely spiritual or arcane in character; historically the most secular (largely atheist) of the realms.
- Waters: faces the Orburydon Sea to the northeast.

💰 Uxridian Grand Duchy — The Kingdom of Gold (East)

Formerly Equateiy. The wealthiest of the old independent nations, reorganized into a powerful Grand Duchy.

The Uxridian Grand Duchy in detail — the eastern highlands and Orburydon coast

- Capital: Rewalen (Name Evolution canon; Ociyaran was the seat under the old Equateiy, and Zada becomes the capital later).
- Terrain: balanced and resource-rich — sea access, river systems, and forests. A powerful economic and naval region.

- Economy: famed for its banking houses, jewel mines, and the strongest currency in the world.
- Coast: the Orburydon Sea to the east, gateway to imperial sea trade.

🏰 Theolisseia — The Mountain Magocracy (Southeast)

Formerly Vikitsv. The mountain kingdom and heartland of organized magic, radiating from Mount Aicren and its Magic Tower.

Theolisseia in detail — the dense southeastern forests and mountain slopes

- Capital: Hadirel (Name Evolution canon; Berlailia was the seat under the old Vikitsv).
- Terrain: dense forested, humid subtropical lowlands threaded with rivers — ideal for resource extraction — rising to the coldest peaks in the world at Mount Aicren.
- Culture: wild and distinct; the cradle of formal magecraft and the magical orders.

Thult & The Academy — The Southern Isles

Thult — formerly the Mystic Isles. The sacred archipelago that technically belonged to no king. Once believed to be the link between the world of the gods and the world of mortals, the isles are now barren and desertified — "the Land of Sand," a dead zone of magical collapse.

The southern isles — Thult and the neutral island of The Academy, off Lingia's southern coast

- Thult: drawn with no political boundary; sacred and contested, garrisoned by no one.
- The Academy: the neutral island institution between the Lingia and Hikai coasts. Before the reign of Emperor Goteivati Zivc Patton III, it was chiefly a school for adolescent nobility; it later transformed into the empire's formal magical-education infrastructure. It endures across every era, a sign of institutional neutrality that transcends political borders.

How Everything Sits — Relative Positions (Empire-Centric)

Centered on the Caporiolan Kingdom, the Imperial Seat:

- West → the Tanan Grand Duchy (agrarian, now a duchy).
- Southwest → Lingia (dry, bordering the southern wastelands).
- Center → the Caporiolan Kingdom (imperial capital, administrative seat).
- Northeast → Hikai (elevated, scholarly / mystical).
- East → the Uxridian Grand Duchy (wealthy, with Orburydon sea access).
- Southeast → Theolisseia (mountain wilderness and magic).
- South → Thult and The Academy (the neutral, sacred isles).

The world reads as two landmasses: the western mass (Tanan, Caporiolan, Lingia) and the eastern mass (Hikai, Uxridian, Theolisseia), with the southern isles of Thult and the Academy set in the waters between them.

Canon Check — Flags & Things to Verify

1 • "Capriolan" vs. "Caporiolan." The map labels the central kingdom Capriolan, but the Name Evolution and Locations canon both spell it Caporiolan Kingdom. Reconcile the spelling so the map matches the bible.

2 • Capitals not drawn on the map. This map shows nation names only — no capitals. The Name Evolution canon assigns Crandona-era seats (Tericaer, Baviet, Haleret, Osenki, Rewalen, Hadirel), while the Locations doc still lists them as [TBD]. Worth locking these in and marking them on the map.

3 • The southern sea isn't labeled. Canon renames the old Fetora Sea to Thult (Southern Waters) for this era, but the map leaves the southern waters (below Lingia and around the isles) unlabeled. Add the label to match canon.

4 • Henem Bay is absent. The northern coastline (Henem Bay in the other eras) doesn't appear on this map, and canon notes its Crandona-era name was never recorded. A gap to fill if the northern coast matters here.

5 • Duchies vs. Kingdoms. Two realms — Tanan and Uxridian — are Grand Duchies, while the rest are Kingdoms. This tiered naming reflects the new imperial hierarchy; worth a note on what rank each holds under the Caporiolan crown.

✓ Strong Canon Matches

The map lines up with canon well: all six successor realms sit in their correct positions with their correct new names; the Quather Sea (west) and Orburydon Sea (northeast) are both correctly placed and named for the era; Thult appears as the southern sacred isles; and The Academy sits offshore between the Lingia and Hikai coasts, exactly where canon places the neutral institution.
